

International Day of Non Violence

Our College every year celebrate the International nonviolence day because Human values are those that enable man to live in harmony with the rest of the world. Without values, human life would be devoid of meaning, developing into a bland, and texture less existence devoid of destination.

Mahatma Gandhi is known for his nonviolent civil disobedience in india and South Africa. These included the start of the noncooperation movement in 1922 and the salt Satyagraha or salt (Dandi) March starting on 12, 1930. Through Gandhi's efforts, India finally gained its freedom on August 15, 1947. The nation mourned for him after he was assassinated on January 30, 1948. The United Nations(UN) International Day of Non Violence is also held on October 2 each year to coincide with Mahatma Gandhi's birthday.
